Hiring Process

- Application Packet Review

Franklin Fire & Rescue and Human Resources personnel will review applicant packages. The formula for selection focuses on individuals with more positive attributes and fewer negative. Applicants may be disqualified from the applicant pool at this point and will not be notified of this action.

- Written Assessment Exam

The written examination consists of questions involving mathematics, reading comprehension, and problem solving.

- Panel Interview

Panel Interviews are formal interviews. A applicant chosen by the Human Resources and Franklin Fire & Rescue Chiefs will receive a panel interview. After all interviews are completed, the panel will forward the results to the Chiefs for consideration. The Chief Officer responsible for the hiring of new recruits reviews all applicant recommendations and information before making the decision to make an offer to the candidate(s).

- Conditional Offer of Employment

If vacancies exist, the Chiefs will select applicants and provide a conditional offer of employment. During the conditional offer portion of the process, the applicant agrees to successfully complete a psychological examination, background checks, and pre-employment drug screening.

- Psychological Examination

The applicant will be scheduled for a psychological examination. The results will be reviewed. If the results are acceptable, the applicant will move to the next step. If the results are unacceptable, the applicant will be disqualified from the applicant pool.

- Background Check and DSS Investigation

A background investigation includes employment verification, Virginia Office of EMS eligibility check and reference checks along with a complete review of your criminal and driving records. Successful applicants will move to the next step. If the background check is unacceptable, the applicant will be disqualified from the applicant pool.

- Pre-Employment Drug Screening

The applicant will be asked to participate in a drug screen examination. If the applicant is successful and vacancies exist, he or she will move to the final step. If the drug screening results are unacceptable, the applicant will be disqualified from the applicant pool.

- Final Contractual Employment Agreement

If a firefighter/medic vacancy exists and the applicant has been successful in completing the requirements, the City of Franklin Fire and Rescue will present a final conditional offer of employment to the applicant. If all requirements have been met, the applicant will be hired.
